

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Boeing Financial Assistance Fund
For the Families of the Victims of the Lion Air Flight 610 and Ethiopian Airways Flight 302 Accidents

(Washington, D.C. – September 23, 2019) The two Administrators of the Boeing Financial Assistance Fund, Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros, announced today that the Fund - designed to provide $50 million in immediate financial assistance to the families of those victims of the Lion Air Flight 610 and Ethiopian Airways Flight 302 accidents - will begin operations today.

Mr. Feinberg and Ms. Biros designed and administered the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund of 2001, the Gulf Coast Claims Facility related to the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill in 2010, the OneFund Boston 2013 Victim Relief Fund, the OneOrlando Fund, among many others.

The Fund will begin accepting claims from family members on September 23, 2019. All claims for compensation must be submitted to the Fund no later than December 31, 2019.

The families of each of the 346 passengers will receive approximately $144,500.00.

“Participants in the Fund will not be required to waive or release the right to litigate as a condition of participation. The Fund is separate and apart from any such litigation. The Fund is purely voluntary; no individual is required to participate,” said Kenneth R. Feinberg.

“All eligible claimants will need to provide contact information, and documentary evidence that the individual filing the claim is legally authorized to act as the Legal Representative of the victim’s estate according to the estate law of the victim’s domicile. Eligible claims will be paid promptly after a submitted claim is deemed eligible and all required documentation has been received,” said Camille S. Biros.

Information about the Fund, including the Fund Protocol and Frequently Asked Questions are available on the following website: BoeingFinancialAssistanceFund.com. Translated documents will be made available upon request.
